

Key Learning

- Katsushika Hokusai was a Japanese painter and printmaker
- Katsushika Hokusai made a series of woodblock prints which all depict the Japanese landmark, Mount Fuji.
- The use of printing block to make an image

Year 2/3 Art – Printing landmarks in my town

Morda CE Primary School

The Railway Station

Art works to study

Katsushika Hokusai

Key Vocabulary

Woodblock print	A technique for printing text, images or patterns used extensively throughout East Asia and originating in China
Print maker	An artist who makes pictures or designs by printing them from plates or blocks
Land mark	A feature of a landscape or town that is easily seen and recognised