

Key Learning

Where did Florence Nightingale go?

Florence went to the Crimean war to help look after the soldiers when they were wounded.

Who was Florence Nightingale?

She was a nurse, who was asked by the British Government to go out to the hospitals in the Crimean war. She changed nursing and brought in lots of new ideas making nursing better.

Who was Mary Seacole?

She was a nurse looking after the soldiers in the Crimean war.

What were hospitals like a long time ago?

Hospitals were dirty and carried lots of disease.

What is nursing like now?

Nurses today, still follow some of the rules that Florence Nightingale brought in.

Year 1 and 2

Florence Nightingale and Mary Seacole

Morda CE Primary School

Florence Nightingale and Mary Seacole

Good Read

Key Vocabulary

Hospital

Nursing

Wounded

Soldiers

Medicine

Hygiene